Mississippi State Storylines For Week 14 . . .

- ✓ Mississippi State is looking to beat Ole Miss for the fourth time in the last five meetings for just the second time since 1950. The last time that happened was from 2007-11.
- ✓ The Bulldogs have won four-straight against the Rebels at Scott Field. MSU has never defeated Ole Miss five-straight times in Starkville.
- ✓ Dan Mullen is 2-0 at home against UM and has won by an average score of 36-15 (31-3 in 2011 and 41-27 in 2009).
- ✓ The only other MSU coach to be 4-1 against Ole Miss is Allyn McKeen from 1939-44.
- ✓ Since the inception of divisional play in 1992, MSU owns an 11-10 record in this rivalry.
- ✓ Saturday marks the 110th meeting with Ole Miss, which is MSU's most common foe. This series is also tied for the 15th-longest series in the country.
- ✓ Saturday marks the 99th uninterrupted year the two have played, which ranks sixth nationally and first in the SEC.
- ✓ Mississippi State defeated the Razorbacks in the state of Arkansas for the first time in 10 tries.
- ✓ The Bulldogs improved to 4-4 all-time in overtime games Saturday and to 1-3 vs. Arkansas in OT.
- ✓ At Arkansas, MSU snapped a 33-game losing streak when trailing after three quarters.
- ✓ MSU's opponents this season are currently 83-39 with six teams ranked in the Top 25 and five in Top 15.
- ✓ Under Dan Mullen, MSU is 34-28. In the 62 games prior to his arrival, the Dawgs were 21-41.
- ✓ MSU's depth chart on both sides of the football features just five starting seniors (3 offense, 2 defense) and one backup who is a senior (1 offense). The offensive and defensive depth chart also features 14 freshmen, seven true.
- ✓ Dan Mullen is the fourth-winningest coach in program history with 34 victories, trailing just Emory Bellard (37), Allyn McKeen (65) and Jackie Sherrill (75).
- ✓ Through 11 games, Mississippi State has already surpassed its rushing TD total of 18 from a year ago with 24 after recording one ground score at Arkansas. It's the first time since totaling 28 in 2010 the Bulldogs have reached 20 rushing TDs.
- ✓ MSU is averaging 438.0 yards of total offense a game, which would shatter the school record of 422.0 set in 1982.
- ✓ The NCAA ranks the Bulldogs' schedule the ninth toughest in the country, second in the SEC behind only Tennessee.
- ✓ Dak Prescott is tied for fifth in the SEC with 12 touchdowns scored, tops among quarterbacks. He's also sixth in the league with his 251.6 total offense average.
- ✓ For the third time this year, senior guard Gabe Jackson is the SEC Offensive Lineman of the Week.

MSU ON PACE FOR OFFENSIVE RECORDS

■ After recording 488 yards of total offense against Arkansas on Saturday, Mississippi State is averaging 438.0 yards a contest this season.

If the Bulldogs maintain that pace, they will shatter the single-season program record of 422.0 yards, set in 1982 when Emory Bellard was the coach.

Three of the top five marks fall under head coach Dan Mullen's guidance (2013, 2010 and 2012).

Overall, MSU has totaled 4,330 total yards, the sixth most in a single season. The 2010 team set the record with 5,217.

PER GAME OFFENSE

Year	Avg.
1. 2013.....	438.0
2. 1982.....	422.0
3. 2010.....	401.3
4. 2000.....	386.4
5. 2012.....	381.9

WHITLEY CLIMBING INTERCEPTION CHART

■ Senior safety Nickoe Whitley had one interception at Texas A&M to give him 14 for his career, tied for the most among all active FBS players.

It's also the second most in school history, behind Walt Harris (1992-95) and Johnthan Banks (2009-12), who each have 16.

LEWIS TOPS IN THE COUNTRY

■ Junior wideout Jameon Lewis, who leads MSU with 43 catches, is the only player in the country with five-plus receiving touchdowns, three-plus rushing touchdowns and three or more passing touchdowns.

He is also one of only four FBS players to have four or more receiving touchdowns and three or more rushing touchdowns, joining Tre Madden of Southern Cal (4 receiving/3 rushing), Arizona State's Marion Grice (6 receiving/14 rushing) and Illinois' Josh Ferguson (4 receiving/5 rushing).

FORCING TURNOVERS

■ Against Arkansas, MSU forced three turnovers, marking the fifth time the Bulldogs have collected two or more miscues this year. Against Alabama, the defense created four turnovers.

In the last three contests, Mississippi State has forced 10 turnovers after not having any in the previous two games. Of those 10 turnovers, six have been interceptions.

BULLDOGS EVEN OVERTIME RECORD AT 4-4

■ Against Arkansas on Saturday, Mississippi State improved its overtime record to 4-4 all-time.

Four of those OT tilts have been against the Razorbacks, who are 3-1 in those games.

CAREER DAY FOR ROBINSON

■ Despite missing several days of practice due to illness and playing just two quarters at Arkansas, sophomore running back Josh Robinson had a career-high 101 yards on 17 carries.

FEW FLAGS

■ After being flagged a combined 17 times against Bowling Green and Kentucky, MSU has been penalized just 13 times the last four games.

The Bulldogs hadn't had a penalty called against them in seven-straight quarters prior to the offensive pass interference flag in the fourth quarter at Arkansas.

PRESCOTT'S NAME ON THE MSU SINGLE-SEASON CHARTS

■ Sophomore quarterback Dak Prescott rushed for 154 yards at Texas A&M, giving him 722 this season. The Bulldog single-year record for rushing yards by a quarterback is 740 by Don Smith in 1986.

Prescott also rushed for two touchdowns at South Carolina, giving him 10 this season, one shy of entering the MSU single-season top 10 chart.

With two touchdown passes against the Aggies, Prescott has accounted for 19 TDs this season, tied for the fourth most on the MSU single-season record list.

PRESCOTT HAS CAREER DAYS AT TEXAS A&M AND SOUTH CAROLINA

■ Dak Prescott had career highs in passing attempts (43) and completions (28) at South Carolina. Both were the most under a Dan Mullen coached team in an SEC game.

A week later at Texas A&M, he rushed for career-high 154 yards, his fourth game of 100 or more ground yards the season.

Among MSU quarterbacks, Prescott trails only Don Smith (1983-86, nine) and John Bond (1980-83, five) in career 100-yard rushing games.

Earlier this year against Bowling Green, Prescott had a 75-yard scoring run that was the longest rush by an MSU player since Vick Ballard's 75-yard jaunt against Alcorn State on Oct. 2, 2010.

BULLDOGS FORCING 3-AND-OUTS

■ In 139 drives this season, Mississippi State's defense has held opponents to three plays or less (non-scoring) 46 times (33.1 percent).

That's an average of 4.2 drives a game, first in the SEC and good for 24th nationally.

Against No. 1 Alabama, MSU achieved the feat six times.

PERKINS CLIMBING CHARTS

■ Senior running back LaDarius Perkins finished with 70 all-purpose yards at Arkansas to raise his career total to 4,181, the second most in Mississippi State history as he passed Walter Packer (1973-76). Current San Francisco 49ers running back Anthony Dixon (2006-09) holds the career record with 4,443.

PERKINS CLOSE TO TOP 5

■ Senior running back LaDarius Perkins rushed for 32 yards against Arkansas and is up to 2,542 for his career as he passed James Johnson (1997-98) with 2,452 for the sixth most.

Michael Haddix (1979-82) is fifth with 2,558.

Due to an injury, Perkins did not play in the second half at Arkansas.

RARE FUMBLES HURT MSU

■ MSU entered the South Carolina game with just one fumble during the year, but committed two against the Gamecocks. The Bulldogs went into the contest tied with Virginia Tech and Florida for the fewest nationally. Prior to South Carolina, the Bulldogs had a total of just six turnovers. However, they had five against the Gamecocks, the most since five versus LSU in 2011. MSU yielded 20 points off turnovers after giving up just three in the first seven games.

CLAYBORN, SAMUEL MAKE DEBUTS VS. UK

■ Offensive lineman Jamaal Clayborn and tight end Artimus Samuel made their MSU debuts against Kentucky. Samuel had one catch for 28 yards.

BEAR SIGHTING AT A&M

■ True freshman wide receiver De'Runnya Wilson, who made his first-career start against Alabama, scored his first career touchdown against LSU, on a 59-yard pass from Tyler Russell midway through the second quarter for 23-21 lead.

 On the year, Wilson has 19 catches for 269 yards, the fourth-most yards on the team.

At Texas A&M, he had a career-high seven receptions for 75 yards and a personal-best two touchdowns.

MSU TIES SEASON HIGH WITH 3 SACKS AGAINST A&M; JONES GETS FIRST

■ Mississippi State tied its season high with three sacks against Texas A&M, equaling the total it had at Auburn and LSU.

Against the Aggies, Benardrick McKinney had 1.5 sacks, while P.J. Jones was credited with his first in 2013.

Versus LSU, true freshman Chris Jones recorded his first, while Preston Smith had two. Jones also had one against Alabama.

At Auburn, Deontae Skinner, A.J. Jefferson and Richie Brown were credited with those sacks, the first of their collegiate careers.

Against Alcorn State, junior defensive lineman  Curtis Virges recorded a sack in the first quarter

MSU has recorded 14 sacks this season, with McKinney and Smith setting the pace with 2.5 each.

The Bulldogs had two in their last game against top-ranked Alabama and none at Arkansas.

18 AND COUNTING IN THE RECEIVING CORPS

■ So far this season, Mississippi State has 18 players with at least one reception, paced by Jameon Lewis' career-high 49, the 9th most in a single season by any MSU player.

In the SEC, that's tied for most with Texas A&M. Nationally, the total ranks tied for 5th, with UCLA having the most at 22.

TEAMS WITH MOST DIFFERENT RECEIVERS

NAME	NO. OF RECEIVERS
1. UCLA .....	22
2. UTSA .....	20
3. Clemson .....	19
4. Iowa .....	19
5. Mississippi State.....	18
Syracuse.....	18
Texas A&M.....	18
Troy.....	18
Cincinnati .....	18

LINEBACKERS STRONG AGAINST KENTUCKY

■ Against Kentucky, MSU linebackers Deontae Skinner and Benardrick McKinney recorded 11 (career high) and 10 tackles, respectively, to mark the first time this season MSU has had two players record 10-plus stops in the same game.

Skinner has missed the two games since due to injury, while McKinney has nine total stops.

TOUCHDOWN FOR THE BIG GUY

It was the first time an offensive lineman had scored since Gabe Jackson also recovered a fumble in the end zone against Auburn on Sept. 9, 1010.

PRESCOTT, LEWIS MAKE SEC HISTORY

■ Against Troy, Mississippi State became the first school in SEC history to have two players (Dak Prescott and Jameon Lewis) on the same team in the same game score a rushing and receiving touchdown while also throwing a touchdown pass.

Versus Kentucky, Lewis achieved the feat again and became the first player nationally to do it twice in a season since James Casey of Rice in 2008.

PRESCOTT KNOWS THE DWS END ZONES

■ Sophomore signal caller Dak Prescott has accounted for 13 touchdowns in the five home games he has played (didn't play against Alabama).

After throwing two touchdown passes against Kentucky and catching one, he has six rushing TDs, five passing and two receiving at Scott Field.

MSU'S OFFENSE IMPRESSIVE AT TEXAS A&M

■ The 556 yards of total offense against Texas A&M were the most in an SEC game under Dan Mullen, while the team's four TD passes were tied for the most (Arkansas, 2012) in an SEC contest under him.

DEFENSE SOLID IN OPENER AGAINST OSU IN HOUSTON

■ Last season, Oklahoma State finished third in the FBS in scoring at 46.0 points. But against the Bulldogs, the Cowboys managed just 21.

MSU also held OSU scoreless in the first quarter, marking the first time in 35-consecutive quarters it failed to score.

In the first half alone, Mississippi State forced Oklahoma State to punt four times. The Cowboys' six total punts were their most since punting six times against Missouri in 2011, a span of 20 games.

McKINNEY AND SMITH SOLID THIS YEAR

■ Sophomore linebacker Benardrick McKinney had 3 tackles against the Razorbacks. In the last five games (Kentucky, South Carolina Texas A&M, Alabama and Arkansas), he has recorded 25 hits.

IN SEC games only, he is tied for 33rd with 38 stops.

Junior defensive end Preston Smith has also been impressive recently, starting with a career-high 8 stops against the Wildcats. He has booked 6.5 tackles for lost yardage on the year.

RUSSELL BECOMES MSU'S TD PASS LEADER

■ With his two touchdown passes against LSU on Oct. 5, senior quarterback Tyler Russell became Mississippi State's all-time leader with 39.

After throwing for two touchdowns at Arkansas, he has accounted for 45 total touchdowns in his career, third most in MSU history. Don Smith (1983-86) is first with 52, while Anthony Dixon is second with 46.

RUSSELL'S NAME ALSO APPEARING ON OTHER MSU PASSING CHARTS

■ With his 18-of-28 passing performance against Arkansas for 263 yards, senior quarterback and Maxwell Award candidate Tyler Russell moved up the MSU career passing charts.

Despite missing three games with a concussion and seeing limited action the last five games, he is third in career yards (5,441), third in completions (410), sixth in attempts (699) and fourth in 200-plus yard passing games (10).

SINGLE-SEASON PASSING AVERAGE RECORD LIKELY TO BE BROKEN

■ The Bulldogs threw for 297 yards against Arkansas to remain on pace for the single-season passing average record.

MSU is averaging 244.3 yards a game this year. The program's single-season record of 239.7 aerial yards a contest was set in 1978.

MSU PLAYERS UP FOR NATIONAL AWARDS

■ In October, junior tight end Malcolm Johnson was one of 29 players named to the John Mackey Award watch list. Johnson was also selected as the Oct. 30 John Mackey National Tight End of the Week following his career-high four receptions for 70 yards and scoring the game's first touchdown on a 60-yard bomb.

Three weeks ago, senior punter Baker Swedenburg was chosen as a nominee for the Ray Guy Award.

RARE 2-POINT CONVERSION

■ MSU converted one of its two 2-point conversions at Texas A&M. It was the Dogs' first successful rushing conversion since Omarr Conner ran for two points against Tulane on Sept. 16, 2006.

FIRST FOR MORROW

FIRST START FOR BROWN

■ With linebacker Deontae Skinner out with a sprained neck, redshirt freshman Beniquez Brown made his first career start at Texas A&M and his second at home against Alabama.

The Florence, Ala., native has 35 stops this year.

BULLDOGS HAVE OFFENSIVE EXPLOSION

■ Against Troy, Mississippi State's offense was as good as it's been in quite some time.

The 62 points scored tied for the 13th most in school history and were the most since totaling 66 against Tulane on Oct 22, 1994.

The 45 first-half points were second only to the 49 scored in 1946 against Murray State.

In the second quarter, the Bulldogs put up 35 points, the most in the modern era (since 1950) and second only to the 40 scored in the third frame against Howard College in 1910.

SHUMPERT SHINES

■ True freshman Ashton Shumpert paced the Bulldogs' ground attack against Alcorn State with 98 yards in his collegiate debut.

Not since Anthony Dixon in 2006 had a true freshman led Mississippi State in rushing.

Nationally, Shumpert is one of five true freshmen FBS running backs to score twice in their 2013 collegiate debut and one of only two to rush for 90-plus yards.

On the year, he has 161 yards on 38 carries and two scores. He also has three catches for 25 yards.

HOLLOWAY'S KO RETURN IS QUITE LONG

■ Freshman Brandon Holloway has had just three kick-off returns, but he made his first return count.

Against Alcorn State, Holloway opened the second half with a 95-yard return to give MSU possession at the 1. The drive culminated three plays later with a TD by Ashton Shumpert.

BULLDOGS WELCOME NEW ASSISTANT COACHES

■ After a year of very little change in the coaching staff, Dan Mullen had to make three changes this offseason.

Joining his staff is receivers coach Billy Gonzales, who came to MSU after spending one year at Illinois and two seasons at LSU.

Also new is Deshea Townsend, a two-time Super Bowl champion who was an assistant with the Arizona Cardinals the past two years.

HOLMES EVERYWHERE

■ Junior Christian Holmes has been all over the field this season.

Literally.

After making the move from linebacker to tight end in the offseason, Holmes was moved back to the defensive side of the ball prior to the Texas A&M contest due to the injury to Deontae Skinner.

This season, Holmes has played tight end, line-backer and as a key member of the Bulldogs' special teams units.

Holmes has been credited with 10 tackles in 2013, including six solo hits.

OFFENSIVE FIREPOWER

■ Against Alcorn State, MSU totaled 566 yards of total offense, which tied for the 9th most in school history. It was the fourth-best production under Dan Mullen, with the 645 yards at Memphis in 2011 being tops.

Against the Braves, MSU ran 87 plays, which is tied for third most in the SEC with Missouri, Texas A&M and South Carolina. Mizzou is also tops with 97 at Indiana.

BULLDOGS PICK OFF MANZIEL

■ Mississippi State picked off Heisman Trophy winner Johnny Manziel three times last Saturday, marking the first time the defense has recorded that many picks since the 2013 Gator Bowl against Northwestern.

Those were the first interceptions for MSU since Nickoe Whitley's pick against LSU on Oct. 5.

MSU then had two against Alabama.

BULLDOGS PLACE FIVE PLAYERS ON SEC COACHES' ALL-SEC TEAM

■ Mississippi State had five players named to the 2013 SEC Coaches' Preseason All-SEC Team.

Offensive guard Gabe Jackson from Liberty, Miss., represented the Bulldogs on the first team.

Featured on the second team was senior running back LaDarius Perkins of Greenville, Miss. Last year, Perkins became the ninth player in school history to rush for 1,000 yards in a single season with 1,024.

Making third team were seniors Denico Autry (DE) and Nickoe Whitley (S) and sophomore Benardrick McKinney (LB).

McKinney earned freshman All-American honors in 2012 after finishing 6th in the SEC with 102 stops.

THREE WITH DEGREES

■ MSU currently has three players on its roster who have already graduated — P Baker Swedenburg, S Nickoe Whitley and OL Blaine Clausell.

THREE BULLDOGS SELECTED IN 2013 NFL DRAFT

■ Last April, Mississippi State had three players selected in the NFL draft for the second-straight year.

Leading the way Darius Slay in the second round with the 36th pick by the Detroit Lions. Also in the second round, Johnthan Banks, the Jim Thorpe Award winner, went to Tampa Bay with the 43rd overall pick.

In the fifth round, Josh Boyd was taken by the Green Bay Packers with the 167th pick.

Under Dan Mullen, the Bulldogs have had 12 players drafted.

SEASON CAPTAINS

■ Prior to the start of the season, OL Gabe Jackson, RB LaDarius Perkins, QB Tyler Russell and DE Denico Autry.

BATTLE FOR THE GOLDEN EGG

It has acquired the nickname "Egg Bowl", but no invitations are issued, or required. Mississippi State University and the University of Mississippi have standing reservations each November to battle for school pride, bragging rights and a battered 85-year old trophy symbolizing football supremacy in the state of Mississippi.

One of the Deep South's great football rivalries, this feud between State and UM will be renewed a 110th time on Nov. 28, 2013, in Starkville.

Whether known as "The Battle for the Golden Egg", or just "State-Ole Miss", it is the most significant athletic event of each year in the Magnolia State. Seasons and careers are made and hearts broken by the outcome, and gameday finds no one in the state neutral on the subject.

In 1998, for the first time in 27 years, the Battle for the Golden Egg returned to Thanksgiving Day to accommodate a national television audience on ESPN and was carried by the nation's leading cable network for six-straight seasons on Thanksgiving from 1998-2003.

While then-Mississippi A&M began playing football in 1885, and Mississippi two years earlier, the schools did not meet until October 28, 1901. The Mississippi Rebels were returning from playing Alabama in Tuscaloosa, and stopped in Starkville for a game with the A&M Aggies. The inaugural meeting was contested on the south end of campus, on a field used until recently for practice by the Famous Maroon Band. The Aggies, who had played only seven previous football games, scored the first points in school history that day and shut out the visitors 17-0.

Thus began a rivalry that has only gotten fiercer with 100-plus years of seasoning. Ole Miss currently holds a 60-40-6 advantage, their margin largely built in the quarter-century between World War II and Vietnam. The series has been interrupted only twice, with no games from 1912-14 and in

However, there were two meetings in one season, in 1918, with A&M winning both: 34-0 at Starkville and 13-0 at Oxford.

But the game did not acquire its distinctive symbol, and thus the unique title, until 1927. It came about after Mississippi broke a 14-game losing streak to A&M on Nov. 25, 1926, in Starkville. Celebrating Rebel fans took the field to tear down the goal posts, angry Aggies attempted to protect them, and a general melee ensued. Hoping to prevent similar episodes in future years, both schools agreed that the winner of the annual game would take possession of a trophy.

The next year's game debuted a regulation-size, gold-plated football mounted on a pedestal where the outcome of each year's game would be recorded. Because the trophy was shaped as the standard, more rounded ball of the day, it eventually came to be called the "Golden Egg." Today it is awarded immediately following every Battle for the Golden Egg, and proudly paraded on-field by the victors.

The series' commonly used title "Egg Bowl" was hatched in the 1970s when a newspaper sports editor wanted a shorter, distinctive name for the big game than "Battle for the Golden Egg". It seemed natural to call the annual MSU-UM meeting a "bowl" game and to title it after the prize.

The Battle for the Golden Egg has been played on 10 different fields in seven different cities, but since 1922 has been contested only on the respective campuses or in the state capital of Jackson. There have been 36 games played in Starkville, 36 in Oxford, and 30 in Jackson. The Jackson mark includes a run of 18 consecutive years, from 1973-90, at Mississippi Veteran's Memorial Stadium.

The series returned to campus in 1991, in Starkville, with host MSU taking a 24-9 win. Mississippi State leads the series 12-10 since the return to on-campus games 22 years ago.

DAN MULLEN INTERVIEWS

■ All interviews with Dan Mullen should be directed through the MSU Athletic Media Relations office. Please contact Gregg Ellis at 662-325-0967 or via email to arrange an interview time.

Coach Mullen has three scheduled interview opportunities during game-week and media representatives are encouraged to make use of these question-and-answer situations. Mullen is also generally available after practice, but media members must coordinate those opportunities through the MSU Athletic Media Relations Office.

SUNDAY TELECONFERENCE

■ MSU will conduct a Sunday teleconference with Coach Mullen at 1 p.m. (CT). This is generally a 30-minute conference call that reviews the previous week's game; however, the upcoming game's media is encouraged to use this opportunity to speak to the MSU head coach. Contact the MSU Media Relations office for the teleconference number.

MONDAY PRESS CONFERENCE

■ Coach Mullen will conduct a weekly media conference each Monday prior to an MSU game. The conference will be conducted at the Leo Seal Jr. Football Complex. Coach Mullen's press conference begins at 1:00 p.m. (CT). Selected players will be available following Mullen's presentation (at approximately 1:30 p.m.). To request specific players, media members must contact the media relations office by 3:00 p.m. the Sunday preceding each respective media conference.

WEDNESDAY TELECONFERENCE

■ Coach Mullen will join the league's other 13 coaches on the SEC's Wednesday teleconference. Coach Mullen's 10-minute segment is scheduled from 11:50 a.m.-12 p.m. (CT). The teleconference phone number can be obtained by calling the SEC or the MSU Media Relations Office. The SEC provides an archived copy of the teleconference at www.secsports.com for media replay.

WEEKLY PLAYER INTERVIEWS

■ Interviews with our players are encouraged; however, all interviews must be arranged through the Athletic Media Relations Office.

This policy facilitates the orderly scheduling and completion of the desired interview. During game week, all player interviews need to be arranged at least 24 hours in advance. Please coordinate all requests with the MSU Athletic Media Relations office.

Players will be available at the press conference. Select players will also be made available following practice on Sunday or Monday and Tuesday.

It should also be noted that all practices are closed.

MSU Athletic Media Relations will not supply the media home or cellular telephone numbers for Bulldog student-athletes. Likewise, training room, locker room and apartment/dormitory areas are considered private player areas and are off-limits to the media.

HEAD COACH • FIFTH SEASON

In his fifth season, Dan Mullen has revitalized and reenergized the Mississippi State fan base. From the moment of his introduction on Dec. 10, 2008, as the 32nd head coach in school history, supporters have turned out in record numbers and capacity crowds to support the Bulldogs.

Mississippi State fans have sold out a school-record 28 consecutive home games at Davis Wade Stadium. Each of the last three years has seen the school's attendance record broken. In fact, 19 of the school's Top 20 crowds have occurred in the last four seasons, with all seven crowds in 2012 ranking in the Top 25 all-time. The Bulldog faithful have gone on to watch the head coach lead the Maroon and White's football program to three-straight postseason bowl wins for the second time in the 113-year history of the program.

Just four years into his tenure, Mullen (.548) owns the highest winning percentage as a coach at State since the late Darrell Royal in 1954-55 (.600), and is already fourth in school history for wins by a MSU head coach (34). On top of that, Mullen has dominated the Egg Bowl rivalry (3-1), becoming just the second MSU coach and the first since Sid Robinson from 1917-19 to start off 3-0 against Ole Miss.

Mullen (34-28) was widely regarded as one of the top young minds in college football when he arrived at Mississippi State, and he brought not only an impressive offensive resume and a list of NFL-developed quarterbacks, but also an energy and passion for the college game.

Improvement wasn't limited to fan enthusiasm, as Mullen ignited the Bulldogs to a nine-win season in just his second year, and then another successful season in 2011. With Mullen's masterful offensive mind, the Maroon and White broke the school record for six different offensive categories in 2012, including passing touchdowns in a season (28) and scoring (383).

In 2010, State won six games in a row in the middle of the season and finished among the Top 10 in school history in the following categories - passing yardage, completion percentage, passing touchdowns, rushing attempts, rushing yards, rushing touchdowns, total plays, total offensive yards, per-game offense and first downs. The defense also amassed the 10th-highest sack total in school annals.

The 2010 Bulldogs closed out the season with nine victories after posting the largest margin of victory in a bowl game in school history. The resounding 52-14 Gator Bowl win against Michigan capped a truly remarkable year.

With the nation's toughest schedule in 2009, State's rushing attack, led by first-team all-Southeastern Conference selection and current NFL running back Anthony Dixon, finished ninth nationally with a 227.6 rushing yard average per game. State averaged 371.9 yards of total offense per game, the ninth-highest total in school history and the most since 2000 at the time.

Mullen's first season concluded with a rousing 41-27 victory against MSU's in-state rival, which brought the Golden Egg back to Starkville. He became the only third Mississippi State coach to win his Egg Bowl debut since 1939, joining Allyn McKee and Jackie Sherrill. The Bulldogs posted a 5-7 overall record in 2009, including three road victories.

During the previous four seasons as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Florida, Mullen molded a Heisman Trophy, Davey O'Brien and Maxwell Award-winning quarterback, along with a Rimington Trophy finalist and a Biletnikoff Award semifinalist.

In 2008, Mullen's offensive attack ranked third nationally in scoring - averaging better than 45 points per game as the Gators scored at least 30 points in 12-of-13 games. The 587 points scored eclipsed the previous Florida mark, set in 1996.

Florida rushed for a school-record 41 touchdowns that season and UF's 80 rushing touchdowns over the two seasons ranked second nationally. Overall, Florida's rushing yardage of 2,987 ranked ninth nationally in 2008 and was the third-highest total in school history.

Seven offensive players were recognized as All-Southeastern Conference selections following the season in which Mullen helped UF claim its second SEC Championship and a chance to play for its second national championship in three seasons.

The Gator offense ranked first in the SEC in scoring offense and total offense for a second-straight season in 2008, averaging 45.2 points and 442.4 yards per game. Under Mullen's tutelage in 2007, UF averaged 42.5 points and 457.2 yards.

In 2007, Mullen directed the Gator offense to the third-highest point total ever by a UF unit and the top single-season marks for rushing touchdowns and third-down conversion percentage. Florida's offense scored 75 touchdowns, second most in the SEC.

Mullen orchestrated a UF attack that was the only one in the nation to have rushed for a touchdown and passed for a touchdown in every game during the season. He also helped UF score on 83-of-152 drives in 2007 for a league-best 54.6 percent, marking the best number since the stat was tracked by the SEC in 2000. Florida additionally averaged 7.0 yards per play that year, the fourth-best total in the nation. Lastly, the Gators averaged 5.3 yards per rush, the second-best number in school history.

In 2007, Mullen helped coach sophomore quarterback and current NFL star Tim Tebow into a Heisman Trophy, Maxwell and Davey O'Brien award winner, 78th Sullivan Award winner and AP first-team All-American among other honors.

He also tutored six offensive players to the All-SEC team: Tebow, NFL Pro Bowler Percy Harvin, Cornelius Ingram, Brandon James, Jim Tartt and Drew Miller.

In Florida's 2006 national championship, Mullen oversaw an offense that averaged 29.7 points and 396.1 yards per game. In the BCS National Championship Game, he engineered an attack that produced 41 points against a top-ranked Ohio State squad that was limiting opponents to less than 11 points per game on the year. Under Mullen's tutelage, quarterback Chris Leak opened the contest by going 9-for-9 for 99 yards and a touchdown en route to earning Offensive MVP honors.

The 2006 Gator offense posted 76 plays of 20 yards or more, 19 of which went for touchdowns. Florida passed for 29 touchdowns in 2006, while Leak ranked among the national leaders with 23 scoring tosses. Tebow matched UF's then single-season record for rushing touchdowns by a quarterback with eight scores, and his 5.3 yards per carry average placed second nationally among signal callers. Six different players averaged at least 5.0 yards per carry.

In 2005, Chad Jackson played his way to Biletnikoff Award semifinalist status after matching the UF single-season record with 88 receptions, a figure that led the SEC and finished sixth nationally. Center Mike Degory was also named a finalist for the Rimington Trophy, given annually to the nation's top center, during that campaign. Both earned first-team All-SEC honors.

Mullen went to Florida from Utah with Head Coach Urban Meyer, with whom he had spent 10 seasons. While the quarterbacks coach at Utah, Mullen developed current NFL star Alex Smith - the first overall selection in the 2005 NFL Draft - from a pocket passer into an efficient executor of the spread, making him one of the most versatile threats in college football. Smith took over the starting job three games into Mullen's tenure, passing for 2,247 yards and running for 452 to finish second in the Mountain West in total offense in 2003.

The 2004 campaign saw Smith earn National Player of the Year honors from The Sporting News and Sports Illustrated, while also becoming Utah's first-ever Heisman Trophy finalist. Smith also garnered final consideration for the Davey O'Brien and Walter Camp National Player of the Year Awards. Smith passed for 2,952 yards and 32 touchdowns and ran for 631 yards and 10 scores on the year, ranking second in the nation with a 176.5 efficiency rating and leading the Utes to a perfect 12-0 season and a Fiesta Bowl championship. As a team, Utah finished the 2004 season third in the nation in scoring offense (45.3) and total offense (499.8).

Prior to his stint at Utah, Mullen served as quarterbacks' coach at Bowling Green for two seasons, putting up 6,627 yards of total offense and scoring 81 touchdowns during that span. In 2002, quarterback Josh Harris threw for 2,425 yards, ran for 737 yards and completed the campaign as the nation's third-leading scorer. Mullen spent the two years before his Bowling Green stint as a graduate assistant at Notre Dame, and before that assisted with Syracuse's 1998 BIG EAST championship and Orange Bowl run.

A two-year starter at tight end for Ursinus College in Collegeville, Pa., Mullen earned first-team All-Centennial Conference honors as a senior. He is married to the former Megan West, and the couple has two children, Canon and Breelyn Elisabeth.

GAME RECAP ...

OXFORD, Miss. - Three years of dominance came to an end Saturday night as Ole Miss took advantage of a solid second half en route to a 41-24 win against No. 25 Mississippi State.

Tied 17-apiece at the break in front of 61,005 fans at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium, the Rebels exploded for 24 unanswered points in the final two quarters as they won for the first time in this series since 2008.

The loss dropped the Bulldogs to 8-4 overall and 4-4 in SEC play, while Ole Miss improved to 6-6, 3-5.

Defensively, MSU had few answers for the Rebels' fast-paced offense. Behind the play of quarterback Bo Wallace, running back Jeff Scott and wideout Donte Moncrief, Ole Miss manufactured 527 yards of offense.

Wallace accounted for 294 yards through the air on 15-of-22 passing, while Scott totaled 111 yards on 28 carries. Moncrief, though, proved to be the key as he hauled in seven passes for 173 yards and three scores.

But it was Jamal Mosley who gave the Rebels the quick 7-0 lead after he hauled in a 25-yard strike from Wallace on their first possession.

However, the celebration was short-lived as the Bulldogs responded on the ensuing kickoff when Jameon Lewis went untouched for 100 yards to the end zone.

State then took its first lead at 14-7 with 2:46 left in the first quarter when Tyler Russell avoided heavy pressure to find a wide open Chad Bumphis.

After Ole Miss closed the gap to 14-10 on a 43-yard field goal, it regained the lead at 17-14 when Wallace hooked up with Moncrief for a 77-yard scoring strike.

But with 3:21 left until the break, Deven Bell evened the score with his 23-yard field goal.

After forcing the Bulldogs to punt on their opening possession of the third quarter, the Rebels responded with a 41-yard field goal by Bryson Rose for a 20-17 advantage, one they never relinquished.

MSU would score late when Chad Bumphis hauled in an 8-yard pass from Dak Prescott.

The Bulldogs finished with 333 total yards, with Russell completing 18 of his 33 passes for 268 yards. Bumphis was his favorite target, as the Tupelo, Miss., native had six receptions for 146 yards.

In front of a raucous crowd at Reliant Stadium, Mississippi State (0-1) fell to No. 13 Oklahoma State (1-0), 21-3 in a hard-fought battle in the 2013 AdvoCare Texas Kickoff game.

The Bulldogs struck first in the 2013 season opener, with sophomore Devon Bell nailing a 40-yard field goal on the first drive of the game.

MSU's defense followed the field goal by stifling the Cowboys' up-tempo offensive attack, forcing five punts in the first half.

Momentum swung near the end of the first half when OSU put its first points on the board as quarterback J.W. Walsh scored on a 3-yard QB keeper to give the Cowboys a 7-3 lead with a little more than two minutes remaining.

Following an MSU turnover on downs, Oklahoma State drove to the Bulldogs' 32 and set up for a 49-yard field goal with just seconds left. The attempt was blocked by senior defensive back Nickoe Whitley and sophomore defensive back Taveze Calhoun returned the ball just nine yards short of the end zone to complete the first half.

The third quarter proved to be the turning point in the game as OSU scored on its first drive with a one-yard touchdown from senior running back Jeremy Smith, giving the Cowboys a 14-3 lead.

Sophomore Dak Prescott entered the game for injured senior quarterback Tyler Russell and put together several solid drives, but before a missed field goal, OSU's Smith scampered for a 20-yard score, making it 21-3 OSU.

The Bulldogs drove into Cowboy territory one more time in the fourth, but were stopped short when a Prescott pass went through the hands of Robert Johnson and was intercepted.

In the first home game of the 2013 season, Dan Mullen and his Mississippi State Bulldogs handled the Alcorn State Braves 51-7 to move to 1-1 on the year.

The Bulldogs had seven new starters from the Oklahoma State game, including sophomore quarterback Dak Prescott, who played the entire first two quarters and led his team to a 37-0 halftime lead. Prescott gave way to freshman Damian Williams in the second half.

Freshmen were a big portion of the contest, as true freshmen led MSU in both rushing and receiving, with Ashton Shumpert (98 rushing yards and two touchdowns) making his debut in the backfield, while wide receiver Fred Ross had three catches for 46 yards.

"The losses always look worse than they are and often the wins look better than they are," Mullen said. "There are certainly some things we need to coach and improve on from this game."

Prescott started the Mississippi State scoring binge with an 11-yard touchdown run in the first quarter and was followed by a pair of Derrick Milton touchdowns to give the Bulldogs a 21-0 lead just minutes into the second quarter.

Shumpert punched in his first of two one-yard touchdown plunges in the second quarter to put the home team ahead 28-0. A Jameon Lewis 31-yard touchdown pass from Prescott and a 26-yard field goal closed the first-half scoring.

The Bulldogs resumed the touchdown string in the third quarter as Shumpert cashed in again from a yard away. Alcorn State got a 25-yard touchdown pass in the fourth quarter from John Gibbs Jr. to Tollette George, but a Nick Griffin 10-yard touchdown run finished the scoring.

The 556 total yards of offense by Mississippi State were tied for the ninth most in a game in program history.

In a tough ending for the Bulldogs, Mississippi State fell 24-20 in the final minute to Auburn at Jordan-Hare Stadium in the 2013 Southeastern Conference opener for both teams.

Auburn jumped out to an 11-0 lead on a 40-yard field goal and 76-yard touchdown pass from Nick Marshall to Quan Bray before MSU climbed back into the contest in the second quarter, trailing only 14-13 at halftime.

MSU got on the scoreboard with just over four minutes remaining in the opening quarter as Jameon Lewis ran for a 14-yard touchdown. Auburn answered with a field goal to make it a 14-6 advantage, but the Bulldogs responded again, this time on a five-yard touchdown run by sophomore quarterback Dak Prescott.

In the second half, State seemed to take control of the contest, taking a 20-14 lead in the third quarter on a Prescott two-yard touchdown run. The defense helped turn the game around, holding the Tigers to just 18 yards during the third frame.

Clinging to a 20-17 advantage with under a minute to play, Auburn drove the length of the field and scored the game-winning touchdown with 10 seconds to play on an 11-yard toss from Marshall to C.J. Uzomah.

Despite the setback, Prescott became the first Mississippi State quarterback to reach 200 passing yards (213) and 100 rushing yards (133) in a game since Chris Relf (224 passing, 103 rushing) against Arkansas in 2010.

On a cool September Saturday night, Mississippi State's offense was hot, racking up 551 yards on the way to a 62-7 victory over Troy.

The Bulldogs, now 2-2 overall, were led by sophomore quarterback Dak Prescott, who had four total touchdowns. In fact, both he and junior receiver Jameon Lewis scored three ways each - rushing, passing and receiving.

MSU's offense lit up the scoreboard, posting 45 points in the first half, the most in a half in the modern era (since 1950), and the second-most ever.

The second quarter alone had 35 points, also the most in the modern era and the second-most ever.

The 62 total points by the Bulldogs were tied for the 13th most in program history and were the most since tallying 66 against Tulane on Oct. 22, 1994.

The Trojans were held to only 186 total yards, 47 rushing and 139 passing. The Trojans entered the contest averaging 547 yards a contest, good for 14th in the country. It was the first time Troy did not reach the 200-yard plateau since Oct. 15, 2011, versus Louisiana-Monroe (126 yards).

Junior linebacker Matt Wells led defensive coordinator Geoff Collins' unit with five tackles, including one sack and 1.5 tackles for loss.

It was actually the defense that sparked the scoring as junior cornerback Jamerson Love recorded his first interception of the year and second of his career, returning the pick 70 yards for a touchdown to end Troy's first drive of the game. The runback was tied for the 12th longest in program history.

2013 GAME RECAPS

Through three quarters, Mississippi State and LSU played a tight and entertaining game. But then the 10th-ranked Tigers erupted for 28 points in the fourth quarter, ultimately downing the Bulldogs 59-26.

With the loss, State fell to 2-3 overall, 0-2 in Southeastern Conference play. LSU improved to 5-1, 2-1.

Dak Prescott got the start at quarterback for MSU, completing 9-of-20 passes for 106 yards, in addition to 103 yards and a touchdown on the ground.

Senior signal caller Tyler Russell returned to action as well, racking up 146 yards and two touchdowns, while completing 7-of-11 passes as he was mixed in with Prescott in his return to the field since being injured in Week 1 versus Oklahoma State.

Russell's two touchdown passes broke Derrick Taite's (1993-96/38) program record for career TD tosses and Russell finished the evening with 39.

Junior Jameon Lewis led MSU with 111 yards receiving on seven catches, including a 20-yard touchdown pass from Russell.

Lewis' 111 receiving yards were the fourth most in a game by a Bulldog wide receiver during an SEC contest in the Dan Mullen era and Lewis' 201 all-purpose yards were the fifth most by an MSU player in a league game under Mullen.

Mississippi State (3-3) escaped Saturday night with a close Homecoming win over Bowling Green (5-2), defeating the Falcons 21-20 at Davis Wade Stadium.

The Bulldogs' 3-3 record makes it the fourth-straight year MSU has had a .500 or better record through six contests, a first for the program since 1997-2000.

Penalties and mistakes made it a closer game than the Bulldogs would have liked against the Falcons, but 139 rushing yards and 75 passing by sophomore quarterback Dak Prescott (and two rushing touchdowns) helped the home team to victory.

Sophomore receiver Joe Morrow was the team's leading receiver with four catches for 57 yards, while senior running back LaDarius Perkins was second only to Prescott with 83 yards rushing including one touchdown, a diving score on the opening drive of the evening.

Perkins' 83 yards gave him 2,285 in his career and moved him into seventh place on the Mississippi State career rushing yardage chart. Dixon is the career leader with 3,994 yards.

MSU's two other scores came on the ground as well with runs of 75 yards and 10 yards from Prescott, while senior Tyler Russell actually drew the start for MSU at quarterback, completing 12-of-14 passes for 102 yards.

Defensively, State was led with eight tackles each from Deontae Skinner and Benardrick McKinney.

2013 GAME RECAPS

On the backs of Jameon Lewis, Dak Prescott and a late defensive stand, Mississippi State (4-3, 1-2 SEC) beat Kentucky (1-6, 0-4) 28-22 in Starkville on a chilly Thursday night at Davis Wade Stadium.

For the second time this season, Lewis scored three different ways, reaching the end zone by receiving, rushing and passing for a touchdown. The junior wide receiver had 53 yards on seven catches, 22 yards on a pair of rushes and 17 yards on his one pass, a touchdown to Prescott, the sophomore quarterback.

Senior linebacker Deontae Skinner paced the Bulldogs with 11 tackles defensively, including six solo stops. He was followed by sophomore linebacker Benardrick McKinney, who notched 10 of his own.

The victory pushed the Bulldogs' overall record to 4-3 and putting the program above .500 through seven games in consecutive years, a first for MSU since 1999-2000.

Mississippi State has won four-straight contests versus Southeastern Conference East Division foes (2011/Kentucky, 2012/Tennessee and Kentucky, 2013/Kentucky). It is tied for the program's longest winning streak versus East Division foes since the divisional format was adopted for the 1992 season (2009/Kentucky, 2010/Georgia, Florida, Kentucky). Head coach Dan Mullen also improved to 9-3 against SEC East foes with the triumph.

Five turnovers plagued Mississippi State (4-4, 1-3 SEC) Saturday afternoon as the Bulldogs fell 34-16 to 14th-ranked South Carolina at Williams-Brice Stadium.

After a first half that saw the Bulldogs down only a touchdown at halftime (17-10), Carolina capitalized on two MSU miscues in the third quarter and sandwiched another touchdown in between to lead 34-10 after three periods. MSU managed a fourth-quarter score for the final points of the afternoon.

State actually outgained USC in total offense, 385 yards to 307. The Bulldog attack was led by quarterback Dak Prescott, who was 28-of-43 through the air for 235 yards, but he was also hampered by three interceptions. MSU's two TDs on the day came from Prescott rushes. Robert Johnson and Jameon Lewis were Prescott's favorite targets, each hauling in seven receptions.

Defensively, State was paced by Deontae Skinner's five tackles. Three others had four stops, including Preston Smith who added a tackle for loss and QB hurry. Benardrick McKinney added a quarterback sack.

In the last game of a road stretch before returning home, Mississippi State (4-5, 1-4 SEC) tried its best to keep up with the Texas A&M offense, but just couldn't quite do it, falling by a 51-41 score to the 15th-ranked Aggies (8-2, 4-2) Saturday afternoon.

Tyler Russell started the game at quarterback for MSU, but Dak Prescott entered on the third drive and played the majority of the game for the Bulldogs, racking up over 100 rushing yards (154) for the fourth time this season. He accounted for 303 yards of total offense in the game including two touchdown passes.

The Aggie defense mostly held junior receiver Jameon Lewis in check, but the multi-purpose threat threw his third touchdown of the season, a trick play with sophomore Joe Morrow on the receiving end of the score.

True freshman De'Runnya Wilson was the star of the receiving group, hauling in a career-high seven catches for 75 yards and two touchdowns for the Bulldogs.

Josh Robinson and LaDarius Perkins each added TDs on the ground for State, Robinson amassing 73 yards rushing.

Junior corner Jamerson Love had a career day defensively, intercepting Heisman-winner Johnny Manziel twice (two of three picks that State had on the day), though the defense had a tough time holding the A&M quarterback in check much of the afternoon.

Mississippi State gave top-ranked Alabama a fight for the majority of Saturday night, but stifling defense and recovery from errors ultimately gave the Crimson Tide (10-0, 7-0 SEC) a 20-7 victory over the Bulldogs (4-6, 1-5).

MSU's defense put forth one of its best performances of the year, limiting the Crimson Tide to its lowest point total of 2013, and fewest since a 9-6 outing against LSU on Nov. 5, 2011.

The Bulldogs were led by true freshman defensive lineman Chris Jones and sophomore cornerback Taveze Calhoun. Jones had a sack and a tackle for loss. Calhoun picked off Tide quarterback A.J. McCarron twice as the Bulldog defense forced four turnovers over the course of the game.

Kendrick Market led all MSU tacklers with a personal-best 10 stops. He also forced his first career fumble fumble.

Offensively, Mississippi State was led by senior quarterback Tyler Russell, who completed 15-of-24 passes for 144 yards, and junior tight end Malcolm Johnson, who caught a career-high six passes for a personal-best 84 yards.

State's lone score of the night, early in the third quarter, came when offensive lineman Charles Siddoway recovered a loose MSU fumble in the end zone. At the time, it trimmed Alabama's lead to 10-7.

It was the first touchdown by an MSU offensive lineman since senior Gabe Jackson fell on a ball in the end zone against Auburn on Sept. 9, 2010.

It took overtime to secure the victory, but Mississippi State found a way to win on the road Saturday afternoon, beating Arkansas 24-17. State (5-6, 2-5 SEC) kept bowl hopes alive with the win. Arkansas fell to 3-8, 0-6 in the league.

Bulldog true freshman quarterback Damian Williams scored the winning touchdown for the Bulldogs on the first play of overtime, a 25-yard scamper up the middle. Sophomore cornerback Taveze Calhoun sealed the win by intercepting the Razorbacks on fourth down on the potential game-tying possession for the Hogs.

Sophomore running back Josh Robinson led the way for MSU offensively, racking up 101 yards on the ground despite only playing in the second half. Signal caller Tyler Russell, named the starting quarterback shortly before the game, put up a gritty effort despite his injury from last week, completing 18-of-28 passes for 263 yards and two touchdowns.

Junior receiver Jameon Lewis made a big return to the stat book, catching six passes for 94 yards and a score.

Defensively, the Bulldogs forced two fumbles and racked up seven tackles for loss to keep the Razorback offense in check. Senior safety Nickoe Whitley, in addition to a forced and recovered fumble, led the team with 10 tackles on the afternoon.

No. 61 Gabe Jackson

Offensive Lineman

Senior • 6-4 • 335 • Liberty, Miss. (Amite County)

What They're Saying . . .

"Gabe Jackson will be one of the top guards in the 2014 NFL Draft."

- Mike Herndon, *Birmingham News

"I've had several scouting buddies rave about Mississippi State OG Gabe Jackson. Just finished 1st game ... big, powerful base and explosive hands."

- Daniel Jeremiah, *NFL Network

"Gabe Jackson will be playing on Sundays, guaranteed. The only question is how high he goes in the NFL Draft."

- Rod Gilmore, *ESPN

"The top guard in the SEC going into the season, the 6-foot-4, 335-pound Jackson is a true road-grader. He combines size, power and strength and has been a fixture at left guard for the Bulldogs since his redshirt freshman season."

- Chris Low, *ESPN.com

"(Gabe) Jackson is a first-round possibility and should have a long NFL career."

- Gil Brandt, *NFL.com Senior Analyst
